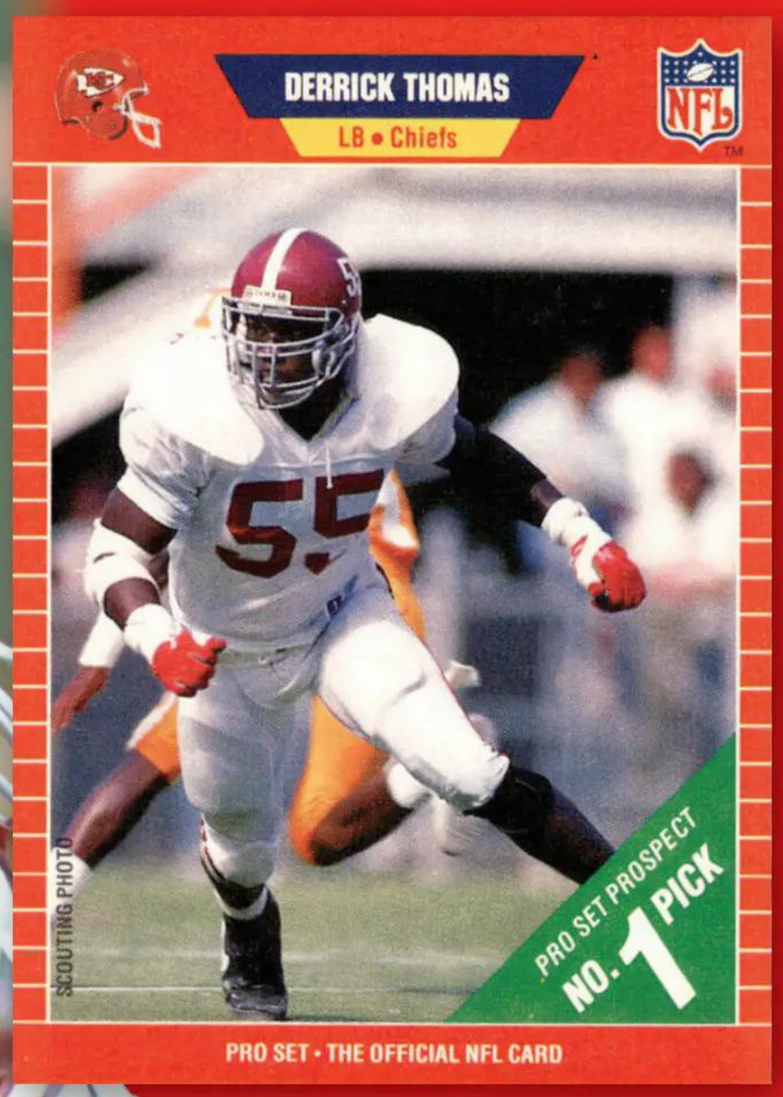
REMEMBERING RECORD SETTING SACK MASTER DERRICK THOMAS

BY RYAN WRIGHT



1989 Pro Set #498 Derrick Thomas RC

Eleven years in the league, 126.5 sacks, just 33 years old and still in his prime… Derrick Thomas (Jan. 1, 1967 – Feb. 8, 2000) was a sack master.

A unanimous All-American linebacker/weakside defensive end at the University of Alabama in 1988, the Kansas City Chiefs selected Thomas with the fourth pick in the 1989 draft. Tallying 75 solo tackles with 10 sacks, Thomas was named 1989 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Thomas avoided the sophomore slump, earning first-team All-Pro honors (2), a selection to his second Pro Bowl (9), and he led the NFL with 20 sacks.

On the way to tackling 20 QBs, on Nov. 11, 1990, against the Seattle Seahawks, Thomas tracked down Dave Krieg a single game record seven times. Since the sack statistic became official in 1982, five players have registered six sacks in a game. One of the five, Thomas on Sept. 6, 1998, vs. the Oakland Raiders.

2010 15TH 2025 PRISTINE AUCTION™

RELEASED 20 YEARS AGO, 2005 TOPPS COLLEGE FOOTBALL SET STILL HOLDS VALUE

BY RYAN WRIGHT

When Topps decided to put together a robust collection of college football All-Americans in one set for a 2005 release, they had over 100 years of amazing players to help form their list. Tightening the card possibilities while creating a fantastic chase, the manufacturer added autographs. The set is loved by fans and valued by collectors 20 years later.

The idea of creating a football all-star list in the form of collegiate All-Americans was first put to practice in 1889 by Caspar Whitney via This Week's Sports. As the years have gone on, All-American lists have multiplied but to be considered a consensus All-American, said player had to receive at least three selections from the five recognized bodies: Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), The Sporting News, and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

College football cards rose in popularity in the 1990s thanks largely to manufacturers like Classic Games Inc. But before the mass card productions of the late 1980s and early 1990s, Topps ventured into the fray with a beloved set, 1955 Topps All American.

In 1955, Topps followed in previous footsteps like the 1894

GETTY IMAGES

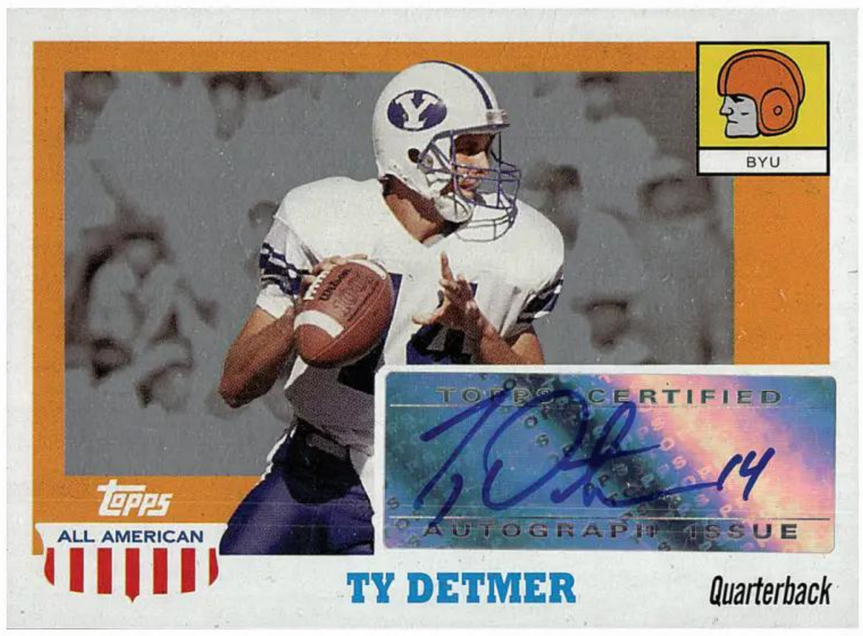
Bo Jackson

Mayo Cut Plug Football N302 set, widely acknowledged as the first college football card set. The 1955 release by Topps is complete with 100 cards that starts with Herman Hickman and ends with Fats Henry.

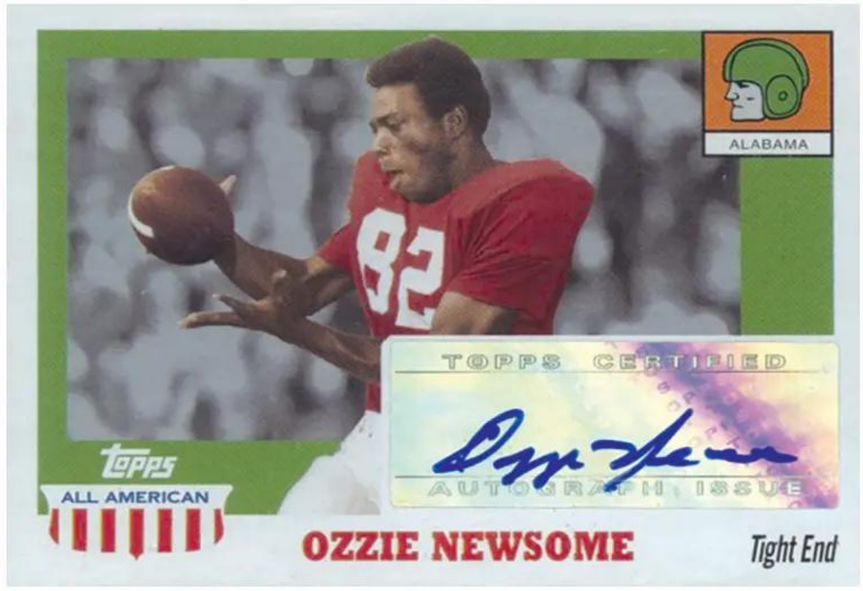
The color card front on 2 5/8" by 3 5/8" cardboard highlighting a previous All-American was sold for a penny as a single with nine-card packs costing a shiny nickel in 1955. The values now far exceed the penny on the counter days. A raw #1 Herman Hickman ranges in value from $65 to $125 with a graded 10 estimated over $2,800.

Some of the more valuable 1955 Topps All American cards:

#12 Otto Grahm: $100-$200
#16 Knute Rockne: $175-$275
#27 Red Grange: $200-$300
#37 Jim Thorpe: $275-$400
#68 Four Horsemen SP: $325-$500
#97 Don Hutson SP: $150-$225



2005 Topps All American Autographs #A-TYD Ty Detmer



2005 Topps All American Autographs #A-ON Ozzie Newsome

A tradition, of sorts, for sports cards, the error card. The ’55 release had its mistakes: #14A Gaynell Tinsley (incorrect bio) and #21A W. (Whizzer) White (incorrect bio).

Another footnote to the 1955 set, not all the cards released were rookie cards. Twenty-one of the cards do not receive the RC label. Some of the names on that list include Otto Graham, Ed Kaw, Knute Rockne, Bob Reynolds, Bruce Smith, Sammy Bauch, and Jim Thorpe.

To honor the 1955 collection, in 2005, Topps released their updated All American set along with Topps All American Autographs, comprised primarily of auto stickers, but there were even more layers for collectors.

The 2005 base version was 93 cards deep. The average raw value now is $4.27 per card. The All American Autographs average $87.86 per card, slightly higher than the ’55 average at $58.99.

Where the layers come into play, there is also a 2005 Topps All American Autographs Chrome Refractors set of 91 cards. The chromium variation values less per card raw than its pure cardboard brother at $50.82 on average.

Something that hasn’t changed in 20 years, parallels. Autographs Chrome were produced as Refractors (/55), SuperFractors (/1), and Printing Plate Black, Cyan, Magenta, and Yellow, each a 1/1.

Another tip of the hat to 1955, the Autographs Chrome Refractors either have a print run of 55 or 5. The chase on fives: Gale Sayers, Jim Brown, John Elway, Joe Montana, Joe Namath, Marcus Allen, Roger Staubach, Troy Aikman, Tony Dorsett, and Barry Sanders.

Topps may have only released five autographed cards of some of the top players on the list, but some of those same players put ink down on the Topps All American College Co-Signers subset. The cards paired talents like Bo Jackson and Brown /25, Sayers and Brown /25, Montana and Elway /25, Montana and Aikman /25, and Sanders and Dorsett /25.

A true oddity to the base set, the 500 Elvis Presley worn shirt memorabilia swatches; #ES5 Elvis Presley Shirt /500. The fabric is reportedly from the 1957 movie Jailhouse Rock.

Style of card does not matter; the player's autograph drives the value. The Jim Brown signed cards continue to be the most valuable with raw prices ranging from $400 to $600 at the low end, rising to $1,500. The next autographed pricing tier below Mr. Brown – Montana, Elway, Namath, Aikman, Staubach, Sanders, and Dorsett. Falling at or just below $100, Bo Jackson and Lawrence Taylor.

The next level of raw pricing from $60 to $120 include Dick Butkus, Earl Campbell, Randy Gradishar, Eric Dickerson, Ronnie Lott, Joe Green, Dan Fouts, Jake Scout, and Paul Hornung.

Other standout players in the set: Steve Spurrier, Kellen Winslow, Bubba Smith, Carl Eller, Desmond Howard, Bob Lilly, Archie Griffin, Chuck Long, Keith Byars, Ozzie Newsome, Charlie Ward, Tommie Frazier, Fred Bilentnikoff, Alex Karras, Jim McMahon, Merlin Olsen, and Billy Simms. Those seen as potential snubs, too long to choose from.

SANTA'S GRIDIRON

Cards of the Jolliest Old Elf Bring Joy to Collectors

GETTY IMAGES

After striking a deal to produce the official trading cards of the NFL in 1989, Pro Set president Lud Denney wanted to see just how well his new product was performing among the country's youth.

Sure, he could have pulled sales reports or walked the floors at card shows to see how many Pro Set products were flying off the shelves, but he had a better idea. Denney instead snuck up to the North Pole to see for himself how many requests for 1989 Pro Set football cards had reached the desk of Santa Claus.

Little did he know, he would get caught in the act.

Disguised as an elf, Denney peered through a window and into Santa's office, watching as the big man himself organized his own collection of 1989 Pro Set football cards.

The moment is captured on a special holiday promotional card Pro Set sent to hobby dealers that December – a llimited-edition issue that kicked off a nearly decade-long run of Santa Claus appearances in the football card industry.

Contemporary reports suggest only 7,000 of the original Pro Set Santa cards were produced, and everyday collectors offered dealers as much as $100 for them at the time. It remains a popular card today, selling on secondary markets year-round and commanding hundreds of dollars in high grades.

Because of the outpouring of support from collectors, Pro Set included Santa Claus as a pack-inserted short print in Series 2 of its 1990 football set. The flip side includes a collector-focused version of "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," while the front shows Santa decorating a tree with Pro Set football, hockey, and entertainment cards – including one of MC Hammer. Denney again appears in his company's illustration, this time in a framed photo on the wall as the Elf of the Month.

Santa made Pro Set appearances again in 1991 and 1992, with Pro Line also joining the action and producing autographed versions of both Santa and Mrs. Claus.

With the continued rise in popularity of football cards in general – there were 12 companies with NFL licenses in 1993 – and a hearty collector appetite for Santa Claus cards, NFL Properties created a multi-brand mail-order holiday set in 1993. Manufacturers had freedom to design their own Santa-themed cards, and they came up with all kinds of concepts that delighted the collectors who sent in 30 opened wrappers from 1993 football cards needed to acquire the set.

From Action Packed's classic Santa signing a football with a fountain pen to Upper Deck's depiction of Kris Kringle catching a touchdown pass from Joe Montana to Topps' art that shows Saint Nick struggling to slide down the factory's chimney, manufacturers ran the gambit of creativity.

The tradition continued in 1994, this time with 10 manufacturers on board and only 20 wrappers needed to obtain the set. Coach Claus calls the plays for Playoff and a classic Santa polishes the Lombardi Trophy in Action Packed's rendition. SkyBox took a different approach, replacing the football in an action photo of Bills quarterback Jim Kelly with a wrapped present.

Eight manufacturers made holiday cards in 1995. That year, Drew Bledsoe and Emmitt Smith helped load Santa's bag on Classic's card, while Pinnacle had Smith, Dan Marino, and Steve Young don holiday hats and fake beards.

NFL Properties saw diminishing collector interest but continued the multi-brand set in 1996 and 1997. Manufacturers began shifting away from an exclusive focus on Santa, with nine different players making an appearance over the final two years.

Santa disappeared from the football card industry until 2002, when Playoff produced a pair of rare Santa Rookie Ticket Autographs in red and green ink. Topps resurrected him again in 2013 as a surprise addition to the Strata Shadowbox Jersey Autographs checklist. In 2016, Panini included Santa in its Black Friday set and brought him back as part of its 2017 Panini Day Collection.

Five years later, Santa got arguably his biggest card to date – a 2022 Donruss Downtown insert.

Santa led off the checklist for the fourth year of the popular holofoil case-hit inserts. On Santa's card, the background features his team of reindeer, elves, a toy factory, a gingerbread house, and a large Christmas tree.

Saint Nick hasn't been back to the football card industry since, but who wouldn't want to see a Santa Kaboom card with interlocking red and green foil or a Santa Color Blast card with an explosion of glittery snow behind him?

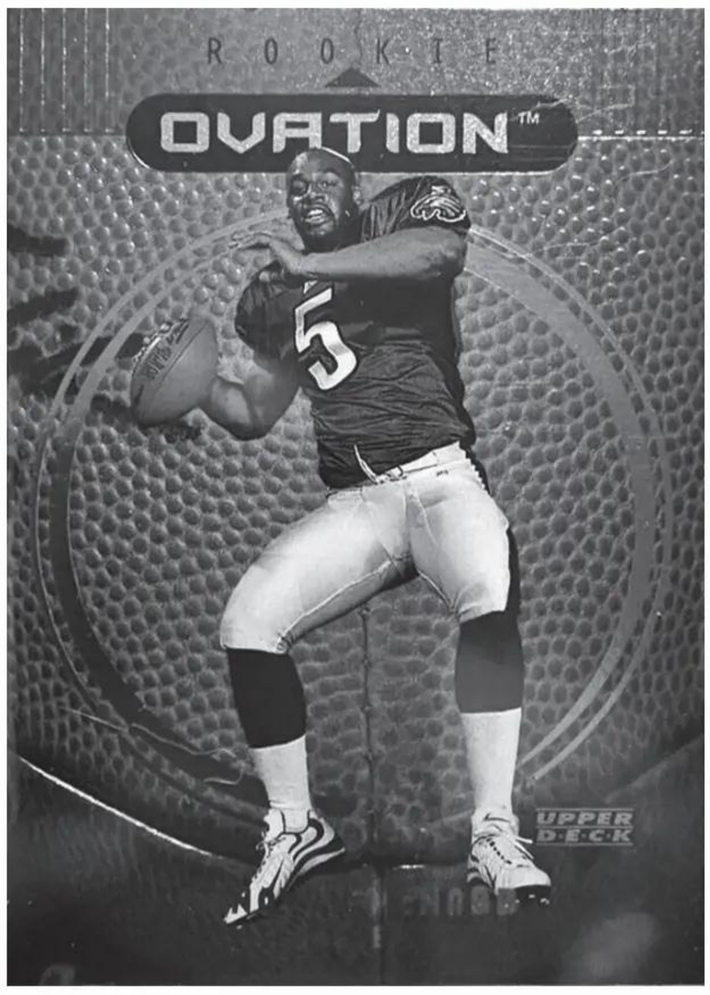
Great Player, Fun and Easy to Collect, Donovan McNabb Rookie Cards

BY RYAN WRIGHT

The Philadelphia Eagles have had their fair share of exciting quarterbacks since forming as an NFL franchise in 1933. The long list includes Ron Jaworski, Randall Cunningham, Carson Wentz, Norm Snead, and current signal caller Jalen Hurts. Even without a Super Bowl ring, a fan, and personal favorite, is Donovan McNabb.

McNabb left Syracuse in 1998 as a record setter after a four-year starting career. Redshirting in 1994, McNabb was named Big East Rookie of the Year in 1995, a three-time Big East Offensive Player of the Year selection (1996-1998) and named first team All-Big East four times (1995-98).

With the Orange, McNabb threw for 8,389 yards with 77 touchdowns and rushed for 1,561 yards with 19 scores posted on the big board. The Eagles picked their QB of the future with the second selection in 1999.



1999 Upper Deck Ovation #62 Donovan McNabb

The Chicago-area native did not disappoint in the City of Brotherly Love. McNabb was selected to six Pro Bowls (2000-04, 2009) and eventually had his No. 5 jersey retired by the Eagles and inducted into Philadelphia's Hall of Fame.

Eleven of McNabb's 13 NFL seasons were spent in Philly. With the Eagles, McNabb set franchise records in passing yards (32,873), passing touchdowns (216), wins (92), and completions (2,801). Even though McNabb attempted 828 more passes than Jaworski, he let "Jaws" keep the team INT record (151-100). In fact, Cunningham (105) and Snead (124) threw more picks than McNabb. Poor Tommy Thompson (1941-50) only attempted 1,396 passes but 100 of those were taken the other way.

Another cool stat on McNabb, in seven postseasons appearances, he won at least one game to advance the Eagles in the playoffs six times. In 2001, McNabb led the Eagles to the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 1980. Philadelphia advanced to the NFC Championship Game in 2003 and to the Super Bowl in 2004. McNabb returned to the NFC Championship Game at the end of the 2008 season, suffering his only one and done in 2009.
